Welcome to the Twelfth SPF Annual Dinner 2025

A warm welcome to members and guests this evening. We hope you have an enjoyable and informative experience.

We are excited to announce the SPF Lifetime Honorary Membership Award to be presented at the dinner by BPF CEO, Melanie Leech. This award is to recognise an individual member who has provided outstanding service and contributed to the SPF and wider real estate industry over a significant period of time.

"We are delighted to support the Scottish Property Federation again this year for their twelfth annual dinner. The SPF continue to play a vital role in helping to shape our shared ambitions for the whole real estate industry. Now more than ever, collaboration is needed to ensure that everyone in Scotland has a safe, secure and affordable place to call home and that businesses and communities can thrive."

Welcome from the Chair

Jonathan Guthrie

Chair, Scottish Property Federation

Director, Robertson Group

Good evening and welcome to you all.

I am extremely grateful to our sponsors, table hosts, guests, speakers and every single one of you here this evening. Without each of you, this event simply wouldn't happen and we would miss the opportunity to demonstrate how our industry works... with collaboration, working together.

As many will know, I set my objective the year, to get the industry working even more closely together. The response has been amazing. Thank you for your support, suggestions and practical wisdom. The support of ministers and other politicians in the room this evening is also most welcome, thank you. We are all striving for the same thing, a busy sector, creating jobs, a sustainable future and a strong economy.

I hope you enjoy the evening as we look forward to hearing from Sarah Smith after dinner!

After-dinner Speaker

Sarah Smith

BBC Political Editor, North America

Sarah Smith (1968–) is a Scottish radio and television journalist with the BBC. She is BBC News's North America Editor, with responsibilities for reporting on all major news stories across the United States and Canada. She previously held the post of Scotland Editor, having joined the BBC in spring 2014 for the run-up to the Scottish independence referendum on 18 September 2014. She has presented the BBC Radio 4 Today programme. Smith has covered stories ranging from the United States presidential elections and the Madrid train bombings (for which Channel 4 News won an International Emmy in 2004), to the resignation of Iain Duncan Smith and an exclusive interview with Saddam Hussein's defence lawyer.

Evening Compère

Melanie Leech CBE

BPF Chief Executive

Melanie joined the British Property Federation as Chief Executive in January 2015. Prior to this, Melanie spent nine years as Director General of the Food and Drink Federation. Melanie began her working life as a Police Constable in the Metropolitan Police Service. She joined the civil service (HM Customs and Excise) in 1988 and subsequently held senior roles in a number of departments including the Department for Culture, Media and Sport, the Office of the Rail Regulator and the Cabinet Office. She was awarded the CBE in 2015 for services to the food and drink industry. Melanie is a Trustee of the property industry charity LandAid and Chair-elect of the Council of the University of Essex.

SPF Chair
Jonathan Guthrie
Director, Robertson Group

Jonathan's career in the built environment sector spans nearly 40 years. He has worked in leading roles within Financial Services, Public Sector and Government. He has created and delivered: redevelopment projects for large corporate estates; regeneration projects for towns and city centres; investment development for low carbon and energy projects; and developed a deep understanding of public and private sectors, including sustainable funding structures and approach.

At Robertson Group he manages high quality relationships with our partners and customers, across our family of businesses. Jonathan represents Robertson Group at Government level and works closely with Ministers, civil servants, the Construction Leadership Forum, Climate Leadership Groups / Commissions, Innovation Hubs and is the current Vice Chair of the Scottish Property Federation and also sits on their Policy Committee.

As a Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Architectural Technologists he seeks new, sustainable methods of construction and management in the built environment. He continues to champion sustainability in construction and drive progress toward reducing lifetime cost, carbon and energy in buildings

SPF Vice Chair
Cameron Stott
Head of Scotland, JLL

Cameron Stott leads JLL's Scottish operations as Head of Scotland and Director of Commercial Agency and Development. With over 35 years' experience in Edinburgh's property market since 1987, he specialises in development, acquisition, consultancy, sales and lettings across business space, knowledge sector and mixed-use schemes. Currently managing high-profile Edinburgh developments including Haymarket, Edinburgh Park, and Heriot Watt University Research Park, plus office projects like Rosebery and Waverley. He advises major clients including Parabola, M&G, Network Rail, and Aviva Investors, while providing market commentary for capital markets and professional departments throughout Scotland. Cameron also works alongside colleagues in sectors residential, leisure and retail sectors.

Addleshaw Goddard

International law firm Addleshaw Goddard's Real Estate practice is a market leader, offering comprehensive legal services across the full spectrum of property-related matters.

Operating from offices in Aberdeen, Glasgow and Edinburgh it advises a diverse client base, including developers, investors, landlords, tenants, financial institutions and public sector bodies. Their expertise also spans across sectors including commercial, residential, retail & leisure, hotels & hospitality, infrastructure & energy, logistics & industrial, healthcare & senior living, sports, mixed-use development and regeneration projects.

The award-winning team is particularly recognised for its ability to handle complex, high-value transactions and large-scale projects, often involving cross-border elements with its lawyers providing tailored advice across transactional real estate, planning & infrastructure consenting, construction & engineering and all forms of disputes, ensuring clients achieve their commercial objectives efficiently.

The firm is proud to support the British Property Federation (BPF) Futures programme, which champions the next generation of real estate professionals. This partnership reflects the firm's commitment to nurturing talent, fostering innovation and shaping the future of the property industry. By supporting initiatives like BPF Futures, the firm demonstrates its dedication to sustainability, diversity and the long-term success of the sector.

With offices across the UK and internationally, the team in Scotland combines local market insight with global reach. Addleshaw Goddard's collaborative approach, innovative thinking and commitment to client service make it a trusted partner for navigating the complexities of the real estate market.
